Mediation Interest: The Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Tenth Circuit (the "BAP") is conducting a one-year pilot program with the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals Mediation Office. Effective October 1, 2009, appeals will be evaluated by a panel of BAP Judges (the "Court") for referral to the Mediation Office. The purpose of the referral is to explore possibilities for settlement and to resolve procedural issues.

It is requested that you complete and return this form to the BAP within ten (10) days. The Court will consider the completed form, along with other factors, to determine whether to refer the appeal to mediation. This form and your preferences will not be made public. Service of this form is not required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8009, unless you choose to do so.

The form may be electronically filed with the BAP using the "Mediation Interest Form" event only. Use of this event ensures that the form will not be made public or served on other parties to the appeal via electronic Notice of Activity. Failure to use this e-filing event will result in making your client(s)' preferences known to the public and other parties.

- ☐ My client(s) would prefer that this appeal be referred for mediation.
- ☐ My client(s) would prefer that this appeal not be referred for mediation because:
